We are glad to note the increased demand for a good stock of bogs in this section. It means that the people here do not propose to longer have their smoke houses in the Northwest, but will hereafter raise their own meat and make their own lard. This means better times in the South.

ANNISTON had the largest holiday trade this season from the country she has ever had. Of course much of this is due to the liberal manner in which her business men invited this trade through the advertising columns of the REPUBLICAN. There is no doubt but printers ink pays. The most successful business men in the world have long since learned this fact.

The sympathy of the Southern people has been shown in a substantial way during the past few weeks for the thousands of farmers in Nebraska who are on the verge of starvation. While the corn crop up there was a total failure, in the South it has been unusually large, and our people can well afford to contribute from their well stored corn cribs to help relieve the suffering among the people of Nebraska.

The recommendation of Governor Oates to increase the number of judicial circuits in the state to twenty seems to be favorably received by the press and people in nearly every section of the State. If it is true that this increase will lessen the present judicial expense to the state, and afford a more speedy trial to criminals and thus decrease the number of lynchings, the recommendations of the Governor should certainly be enacted into law.

Through the enterprise of the Chicago Herald, the railroad record from Chicago to Atlanta has been lowered by ten hours. The Herald issued a special edition with a write up of the Cotton States and International exposition, and in order to have it on sale in Atlanta the day it was issued, secured a special train, called "The Dixie Itinerary," which made the fastest long distance run ever made in the South, covering 733 miles in 16 hours and 37 minutes elapsed time. The average running time was 45 miles an hour.

The gold reserve in the treasury continues to decrease, and the clamor is again being raised for an other issuance of bonds. We thought the gold bugs assured the people that if the purchasing clause of the Sherman bill was repealed that all this withdrawal of gold from the treasury and the necessity for issuing bonds would cease. They also promised that the repeal of the purchasing clause of silver would at once restore confidence, and that it would bring an era of prosperity. But alas for all such promises!

As long as the Secretary of the Treasury holds to a policy which permits an individual to pay his obligation to the Government in silver, and turn right around and demand a gold payment for claim which he holds against the Government, we need not expect the gold reserve to be kept in tact.

And until a change is made in our present system of finance, we will never have that degree of prosperity that we would have under a different system.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Times gives the following pen sketch of Alabama's senior Senator:

Senator John T. Morgan of Alabama, the noblest Roman of them all, a typical Senator, a dignified statesman, an encyclopedia of general information, a scholar, a philosopher, a manly man and one who is acquainted with grief, for he has lost some of his best-loved kindred, has been re-elected by the Legislature of the State which has long delighted to honor him, and has thereby honored itself, will spend his Christmas day in Washington, where he has quite unpretentious apartments. He is a remarkable man—vigorous, independent, and every way strong and forceful. It is a pity that there are not more men like him in public life. With malice towards none, but with charity for all, he sometimes utters the most sarcastic sentences, which make his opponents wince. It was he who spoke in such terrific denunciation of Presidential interference in legislative affairs, concluding his remarks by saying: "The clock strikes in the White House and the cuckoos here come out of their boxes to tell us the time of day."

FRESH NEW GOODS.

Instead of running our stock off as is usual at this season of the year, we are compelled to keep goods coming all the time.

It is estimated that the cold weather of this and last week will cut the orange crop in Florida short by a million boxes.

The fact that cotton can now be bought in Liverpool for delivery in October and November of next year for 34 pence, which is equal to 42 cents in the South, should deter the farmers of this section from planting a large acreage of the fleecy staple. There is no money in growing it at four cents.

The delightful climate during both winter and summer, the valuable natural resources yet undeveloped and undiscovered, should make this section more attractive to capitalists of the North and Northwest than any other section in the United States.

Cor. THOMAS R. ROULIAC, who has been appointed by Governor Oates Judge of the new eleventh Circuit, is one of Alabama's most intellectual and cultured citizens, and his friends over the State appreciate the honor conferred upon him.

The General Assembly will meet again on 22nd of January. There are questions to be considered by the present legislature which are of the most vital interest to the State and in the consideration of these questions, all partisanship should as far as possible be placed aside, and the law maker should do what his intelligence conscientiously teaches him is best for the State and its people.

The people of Alabama are in favor of all parties having candidates to be voted for at an election having proper representatives in the management of the election at every voting place in the State, and want to see the amendments made to our election law recommended by Governor Oates. Let each party have the right to select an inspector, clerk and marker of ballots. Then our elections will not only be fairly conducted, but the people will believe them to be fair.

While the people from all sections are crying out for legislation which will afford some relief from the present panic, it seems to be the purpose of the present congress to again adopt a do-nothing policy, and let the country go to ruin. When the Carlisle currency bill was presented the Democrats had a fine opportunity to regain many of the voters who were lost to the Democratic party as the result of the last session of congress; but instead of promptly passing the Carlisle bill, it is generally believed that there will be no financial legislation by this congress.

MANY of the leading papers of the State are earnest in the demand for the amendments to our present election law which the REPUBLICAN has favored since it has been under its present management.

The Opelika Post in discussing the needed changes in our present law, says: All honest men agree that honest elections are necessary to the maintenance of Republican institutions. Next in importance to honest elections is public confidence in the electoral system. To secure these important ends, partisanship should be exclusive as far as possible from control in the management of elections. So long as the entire control of elections is committed as now, to the board of election officers, so long will partisanship, if led by unscrupulous men, find an avenue to fraud and so long will that party not represented in the management suspect and cry fraud, even though every thing be fair.

The law should, therefore, be changed so as to require the board of election officers to appoint inspectors of election and clerks to be named by the two leading political parties: the dominant party in each county to name two and the minority party to name one inspector.

Furthermore, as assistants are necessary for those electors who are unable to prepare their own ballots, the law should be amended so as to require the appointment of markers selected by the respective political parties such markers to be sworn as other election officers.

With these amendments the law would be measurably perfected. The perpetration of fraud would be difficult and hazardous. The machinery for a fair election would be provided and all reasonable grounds of complaint would be removed.

A Card.

Finding that the increasing business of the REPUBLICAN will demand more of my time than I can give to my professional duties, I have associated with me in the publication of the REPUBLICAN Mr. J. E. Crook, who will give his entire time to the interest of the paper.

The new editor brings with him to the work of journalism a fine literary and legal education, a love and talent for newspaper work, and I feel confident that he will not only greatly improve the REPUBLICAN, but will soon take a place among the ablest journalists of the State.

It is our purpose to make such improvement in the paper from time to time as its patronage will justify.

T. W. AYERS.

THE Age Herald gives the following sensible reasons why the New England cotton mills are coming to the south. First, the New England manufacturers have realized the fact that the mill must be near the cotton field and thus save the freight of $5 a bale.

Second, cheaper labor can be obtained in the South. The working classes can live more economically in the South than in the North, because the weather is milder and not so much fuel and clothing is necessary. The days are longer and more work can be done by daylight, thus saving the expense of lighting the mill.

Third, the New England cotton mills export a large amount of their cotton goods to the warm countries South of us, and by locating in the south they get nearer their market.

Fourth, the climatic conditions of the South give a finer texture to the cloth.

Fifth, the laws of the Southern States are more favorable to manufacturers.

Sixth, coal is cheaper in the mineral belt of the South. The Northern mills pay $1 a ton for their coal, while coal from the Birmingham mines is sold within a radius of 300 miles at $1 a ton.

GOVERNOR OATES returned a few days since from a visit to Washington, and in an interview said: "I am afraid that the present congress will do but little if anything more. I have no hopes of the passage of the Carlisle bill. In fact we are not going to have any currency legislation. The Nicaragua Canal bill will also be defeated."

Governor Oates is a shrewd observer, and we believe that he is right in his conclusions.

The only hope which was held out to the people in the way of relief from the work of this session of congress was that it would pass a good currency bill and arrange for the completion of the Nicaragua canal.

It now seems almost settled that it will do neither, and so far as the good which will result to the country from any thing it will do it had as well adjourn and no longer keep the people in suspense.

It is humiliating to contemplate the fact that with a large majority in congress the Democrats have not kept the pledges made the people in their last national convention.

While the plank in the platform on the silver question may admit of a double construction; that plank which says "We recommend that the prohibitory ten per cent tax on State bank issues be repealed, does not leave us in doubt as to what it means, but pledges the Democratic party if placed in power to repeal this prohibitory tax on State banks.

The people of the South were disappointed when the last session of congress failed to repeal this tax, but took courage when Secretary Carlisle submitted his currency bill embodying the repeal of the prohibitory tax on State banks.

But it now seems that they are again to be disappointed.

This disappointment to Democrats is more discouraging from the fact that it is the last opportunity they will have for at least two years, and possibly many years.

It does seem that Democratic Congressmen and Senators cannot fail to see that no good can result to the Democratic party by this doing nothing policy, and that the love of party and love of country would stimulate them to action.

The burglars continue to get in their work in Jacksonville. On last Monday night they broke the glass in the front window of the store of Hammond & Crook, in which the Southern express office was kept, and entered the building and relieved the express company of the burden of taking care of $110 in cash. The money was in iron safe, but unfortunately the safe was fastened only with the key, and without any trouble the burglar made his way into the safe and carried the cash drawer.

far away in the wilds of Alabama there nestled among the hills not many years ago a tiny village which you may know as "my settlement."

Going there in young girlhood and growing up among its simple-minded, noble-hearted people, I am warmly attached to the place and the many pleasant associations which cluster around its homely name.

My first acquaintance with the town was in the days when the great iron horse, that precursor of modern civilization had not penetrated the surrounding "forests primeval," and the nearest outpost of "the wide, wide world" was more than thirty miles away. To reach the village these long, stony miles had, of course, to be covered by private conveyance, and that usually the primitive covered wagon.

After more than a day spent in our mule-drawn chariot driven by a sable charioteer who rejoiced in the name of Uncle Plant, we reached our journey's end, and I first saw the wonderful place which my childish fancy had pictured as perilously near the end of the world.

In all the settlement there were not more than a dozen painted houses and but one bay-window, which, in the original sense of the word, was the admiration of the entire county.

Plumes were next to unknown, but organs were distressingly numerous, and "singings" the favorite form of social gathering.

A debating club had recently been organized, and one of its meetings was the first entertainment I attended. The subject for discussion was "Resolved, That the negro has greater cause than the Indian for complaint against the whites."

Years have afflicted the memory of the decision, but one point made was indubitably impressed upon my mind: "William Penn went over to Africa and wrung the poor little children away from their parents."

Not long after we had moved in to our new home, the other members of the family being absent and I left to keep house with only a visiting young lady for company, some countrymen riding by, were attracted by the sound of the piano, and immediately dismounting, they seated themselves upon the ground just outside the gate. The music ceasing, they entered, and asked us to play for them. Upon our replying that we were only practicing and could not really play, they insisted, the spokesman saying, "We heard you play in and we come in for some music, and now we want to have it." So, without further parley, I stumbled over one simple piece, and was then requested to play my "favorite." That having been done to the best of my trembling ability, they rose and the leader said, "Well, you've improved some since we came in; you played that last piece better than the first. Good evening! we'll call again when you're in better practice."

Among our callers in those early days was a dame who wished to know what we had to sell. We were at a loss to understand her question, when she explained, "I see you've got a piano; it's a fine one; I'll call again when you're in better practice."

MURDER.

YOUNG STOVALL CONFESSES HE KILLED MARTIN.

Says He Shot Him Because He Believed Martin Would Kill His Sister.

The particulars of the killing of James Martin in East 14 in January 1894, are well known to the people of Calhoun county.

He was sitting around his fire side with his wife and children after supper when some one came and emptied the contents of the barrel of a shot gun into his person, which, without warning, sent his soul into eternity.

Young Stovall, a brother of Martin's wife, who had not been on friendly terms with Martin, was suspected to have committed the crime, and was placed under arrest the day following the murder; and after a preliminary trial was committed to jail, where he is still confined.

The evidence against him was all circumstantial, and many believed that he could not be convicted.

But last Wednesday a representative of the REPUBLICAN was told that Stovall had broken down and made a full and open confession. He went to the jail and told Stovall that if it was true, he would be glad for him to make a statement for the readers of the REPUBLICAN.

The prisoner seemed perfectly calm, and made this statement: On the night of the 12th day of January, 1894, I went to the house of James Martin and shot him through the window with a double-barreled shot gun. I placed the gun right near the window, and it may have touched the sill.

I left my father's house with him at about six and seven o'clock at night and went directly to Martin's house. When I first got to his house Martin was sitting in front and near middle of fire place. I waited five or ten minutes, when he moved to corner of fire place, and I then shot him.

After shooting Martin, I went back home and told my father that I had killed Martin. I then went to bed and remained at home until next morning, when I went to Etowah county, where my brother was teaching, to tell him that Martin had been killed, and that my father had sent for him to come home.

My brother and I started home from Etowah, and I was arrested on the way.

In answer to a question as to when and why he decided to kill Martin, Stovall said: "I decided to kill Martin the day I shot him. I killed him because I believed he expected to kill his wife, and I was his sister."

In answer to a question as to whether Mrs. Martin knew of his intention to kill her husband, he said she knew nothing of it.

For Burial.

For the past several weeks the burial place has given an account of one house after another which had been burglarized in Jacksonville.

The officers have been doing all in their power to detect the burglars, but until last Thursday had not secured sufficient evidence to justify an arrest.

Last Thursday George Champion and other members of the Champion family were seen spending much more money here for whiskey than was believed they had earned, and it was believed the money they were spending was a part of the money taken from the express office a few nights ago.

Warrants were sworn out on George Champion, Jake Champion, Next Champion, Walt Champion, Henry Champion, Tom Champion and Will Champion, and they were all taken from post office was found in Jake Champion's trunk.

Handkerchiefs which were taken from store of Hammond & Crook, where express office was kept, were found in possession of the Champions, and also punch taken from the office of C. D. Martin, where express office was burglarized.

Jake Champion has confessed to breaking into store of C. J. Porter. There seems to be no doubt but the right men have been captured, and it is hoped that we will not be further troubled with burglaries.

Tribute of Respect.

Whereas, it has pleased our Heavenly Father to call to her eternal rest, Miss Bell Coker, a cherished member of Middleton Sunday School.

MURDER.

DOVEY CROW, MISS FANNIE BROTHERS, MISS SULLO, ALCHARG, COMMITTEES.

Hon. J. D. Hammond, resigned the agency of the Southern Express company several weeks ago, and on last Tuesday Mr. S. R. Wilkerson was appointed as agent for this place. The office has been moved to the store of C. J. Porter, and Will A. Wilkerson will have charge of the office.

We regretted exceedingly to hear of the burning of the residence of Mr. Columbus Whiteside. It was a splendid two story building, and was not insured. All the furniture and the other valuables on the second floor were lost. Miss Martie, the daughter of Mr. Whiteside, roomed on the second floor, and her entire wardrobe was destroyed, together with many articles which she greatly regretted to lose.

Many stubborn and aggravating cases of rheumatism that were believed to be incurable and accepted as life legacies, have yielded to the surprise and gratification of the sufferers. One application will relieve the pain and suffering and its continued use insure an effectual cure. For sale by dealers.

We regret to chronicle the death of Miss Pamela R. T. Dickie, daughter of Washington Dickie, who died in this county on the 26th day of December, 1894, in the 25th year of her life. Truly Mr. Dickie has been sorely bereaved, as in the last three years he has lost by death his wife and four children.

Carlton Corwell, foreman of the Gazette, Middleton, N. J., believes that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy should be in every home. He used it for a cold and it effected a speedy cure. He says: "It is indeed a grand remedy, I can recommend it to all. I have also seen it used for whooping cough with the best results." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by dealers.

One of the most delightful entertainments given during the Christmas holidays was the reception given by the Misses Alexander on Main street. It was given in honor of their brother, Mr. Joe Alexander of Montgomery, who was here on a visit.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had a large ulcer on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle of Electric Bitters and one box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at all Drug Stores.

REUMATISM in the back, shoulders, hips, ankles, elbows or wrists, caused by accumulation of acid in the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla neutralizes the acid and cures rheumatism.

Erysipelas in Face and Eyes.

Inflammation Subdued and Tortures Ended by Hood's.

"I am so glad to be relieved of my tortures that I am willing to tell the benefits I have derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla. In April and May, I was afflicted with erysipelas in my face and eyes, which spread to my throat and neck. I tried various ointments and alternatives, but there was no permanent abatement of the burning, torturing pain, peculiar to this complaint. I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and before I had finished the first bottle, I continued to improve until, when I had taken four bottles, I was completely cured, and felt that all signs, marks and symptoms of that dire affliction, erysipelas, were forever banished." Mrs. E. E. OTTAWA, Hillsboro, Wisconsin.

Hood's PILLS are prompt and efficient, yet easy in action. Sold by all druggists, 25c.

Who Have Expressed Opinions During the Month of October.

Mr. Thomas W. Haisten, Buck Horn, Ala., October 2, 1894: "We are still pleased with the Electro-pose which has been in use in our family now more than three years."

Mrs. Fannie C. Starke, Perote, Ala., October 1, 1894: "I still use the Electro-pose and receive great benefit from it, and we do not have any doctors bills to pay now."

Mr. T. H. Holbert, Decatur, Ala., October 1, 1894: "I endorse every thing that I have heretofore said about the Electro-pose, and am always telling some one what it has done in my family."

Rev. L. A. Darsey, Decatur, Ala., October 2, 1894: "The Electro-pose is a grand discovery. I have two and never intend to give them up."

Mrs. W. P. Nelson, Sunshine, Ala., October 4, 1894: "I have never failed to effect a cure in every case of disease I have ever treated, and they have been numerous. The Electro-pose has no more ardent admirer than I."

Mr. C. A. J. Hollingsworth, Mink, Ala., October 18, 1894: "I still think the Electro-pose is a great curative agent, and use it for all ailments in my family, and recently cured a severe attack of dysentery in two days with it."

Mr. J. McKee Gould, Boliger, Ala., October 1, 1894: "After four years' experience with the Electro-pose my faith in it is unshaken."

For full particulars and testimonials of reliable people write to Dr. B. & W. 223 Street, Twenty-first street, Birmingham, Ala., for their book, mailed free to any address.

 J. F. McFarland exhibited a red rash on the street this week which was planted last August that now weighs 6 lbs.

We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Wilkins, mother of Dan W. Wilkins, who died near Jacksonville, December 25, 1894. She was a most excellent woman, and was respected and loved by all who knew her.

In the death of Mr. J. R. McElreath, whose death is recorded by our Weaver's correspondent, Calhoun county loses a valuable citizen, the community in which he lived a useful citizen, the church a Christian worker, and his family a gentle, loving father and husband.

While the cold, snowy weather has been rather unpleasant here for the past week, it has not been so unpleasant as in many other places. Even at Gadsden all trains were stopped on account of the snow, and great loss of cattle is reported over there as a result of the cold weather.

The Christmas tree exercises at the Tampa church passed off pleasantly—to both old and young—and Christmas night brought the merry makers around—with their musical instruments and antics.

The beautiful snow, is good for the rabbit hunters, but bad for the poor bunny. A "Tohoggan" built by one of our pleasure loving citizens—and the steep hillside utilized for the "lightning slide," which nearly took the breath out of some of the older ones, and last night a young fellow with a sprained knee. He is nursing it though—for another slide.

Mr. Will Brittain spent a few days with his parents accompanied by Mr. Davis, of Rock Run.
 Miss Edith Pearce came home from Anniston to spend a few days.
 We hope the Hays and family have had a happy Christmas and will have a prosperous New Year.
 I forgot to say the mercury registered below zero.

The following communication from Piedmont was intended for our last issue, but was received too late.—Ed.
 Our municipal election passed off quietly and every one seems satisfied by the result.
 E. D. McClean was elected Mayor, by a small majority, and the same council remains with two exceptions.

Mr. J. C. Wickes and Miss Annie Moody went over to Atlanta last Tuesday to attend the marriage of Miss Clara Moody and Mr. Frank Smiley.
 Mrs. R. S. Perry and little son left for Philadelphia last week, the home of Mrs. Perry's parents. Mr. Perry will join them before Christmas.

J. Luther Tattum is due in Piedmont, so rumor says, on the down train to day.
 Mr. C. P. Youman and family of Rock Run, are at Mr. Stevens.

Married, on the 25th of December, 1894, at the residence of Samuel Morgan, Esq., Mr. Thomas J. Borden to Miss Maggie C. Davis, all of Nance's Creek valley.
 Mr. Borden is a popular and worthy young man, and the bride possesses all the characteristics of a good long life and a successful household.

Quite an interesting entertainment was given at the M. E. church here last Sunday night by children of the different Sunday schools, after which a collection was taken up for missions.

On Monday evening a Christmas tree for the children was given at the home of brother Horton, much to the pleasure of the children.
 It is feared that the cat crop is damaged by the unusual cold weather of the past few days.
 Mr. J. R. McElreath died at 4:30 p. m. on the 1st inst., and was buried at Union church on the 3rd inst. Truly it can be said of him, a good man has gone to his reward.

Alexandria.
 Christmas has been very quiet.
 The supper given for the benefit of the school, on Tuesday night was quite a success.
 The Methodist Sunday school gave quite a pleasant entertainment on Sunday evening before Christmas.

One of the most enjoyable events of the week was a party at Mr. Norris Woodruff's.
 Miss Maggie Woodruff of Gadsden spent Christmas with her brother in Alexandria.
 Mr. Edgar Wilkins who has been buying cotton in Gaffney, S. C., has returned to spend the holidays with his family.

Dr. J. E. Crook is on a visit to his sister in Spartanburg, S. C.
 Mr. Julius Sheid, a former resident of this county, has returned for a short visit to his sister, Mrs. Clark.

Messrs. Ed Sheid, Charles Liles and Gus Martin, three of our most excellent young men, leave Wednesday for Texas, greatly to the regret of their many friends. May good luck attend them.
 Mr. Edward Liles and his sister, Miss Mollie, after spending the holidays with their brother at this place, have returned to their home in Columbiana.

Mr. Frank Wakefield has returned from Collinsville where he went to attend the marriage of a friend.

Tampa.
 "Blessings brighten as they take their flight." To be deprived of the REPUBLICAN for two weeks, causes its many readers to appreciate it for more than a month's unpaid subscription would afford.

The Christmas festivities having passed, and the New Year made his bow and entered upon his duties, despite the severity of the weather, finds us all with renewed appetites and a large volume of good resolutions, ready to repeat the errors of the past as in by gone years, thus following the example of our present "irresponsible congress,"—whose attention is now more devoted to "Turkey" than the American question or the welfare of their "dear loved constituents."

The Christmas tree exercises at the Tampa church passed off pleasantly—to both old and young—and Christmas night brought the merry makers around—with their musical instruments and antics.

The beautiful snow, is good for the rabbit hunters, but bad for the poor bunny. December 31st—the last day of 1894. Have we all spent this year as we should? It seems I hear the answers—no, no! Let us resolve that at the close of 1895 it can be said of us, "Thou hast done what thou couldst."
 Christmas passed off very quietly and pleasantly here.
 Master Johnie Graham, who has been in school in Atlanta, Ga., after spending Christmas with his father here, has returned to Atlanta.
 Will Cooper, a very prominent young man of Atlanta, spent several days with relatives here last week.
 Little Miss Nina Graham was with the home folks last week.
 Let Savage, who is attending school at Jacksonville, was here among relatives during the holidays.
 Messrs. F. M. Savage, John Akin, J. C. Graham and S. D. Savage were all visitors to Rome, Ga., last week.
 Mr. Den Savage went "down" to Anniston last week on a visit.
 Mrs. Maggie Wilson is visiting in Anniston and Oxford this week.
 Little Marie Graham was in Piedmont Saturday and Sunday last.
 Mr. Arthur Brewster of Piedmont, spent Sunday here with relatives.
 J. D. Amberson and wife were visitors at Randle last week.
 The Misses Casey of near Goshen, were the guests of Miss Enla Stewart last week.
 The small boy has been in his glory here to-day throwing snow balls. The snow here is about four inches deep.

Peck's Mill.
 Since I last wrote the REPUBLICAN there have been several marriages in this community. Oliver Thompson to Miss Eva Hindman; Henry Fleming to Miss Vina Ross; Charley Fleming to Miss Mollie Crow; Mr. Dodgins to Miss Howell; Mr. Stovall to Miss Howell; Phil Dickie to Miss Griffin; Lee Dickie to Miss Britton; Joe Hutto to Miss Lulu Vice.

The people of the community wish for all of them great success.
 The people over here all had a pleasant time during the Christmas holidays.
 H. H. Gray of Atlanta, is visiting his father here this week.
 The new Methodist preacher for the Gadsden circuit has arrived with his small family.—not in number. Two rooms will be added to the parsonage.
 J. W. Williams has added a new gift mill to his gin and grinds every Saturday.

Colvin's Gap.
 About six inches of snow lay on the ground Monday morning.
 N. W. McLean and W. C. H. H. Kingsworth and their families left for Texas last week.
 Nearly all the farmers in this vicinity have plenty of corn, meat and hogman for the present year, and some have more than enough for their own use.

There is great financial distress among the people, and the cry is for more money. Why does not congress establish a financial system that will put plenty of money in circulation?
 The REPUBLICAN is right in advocating such changes in our election laws as will secure this election. A very large majority of all parties favor fair elections. If there were frauds in the August election, let them be investigated, and let whoever got the most legal votes have the offices.

Fergusville.
 The young people of this vicinity have enjoyed many socials during Christmas week.
 Master Clarence Weathers has returned to Anniston to occupy a position in Mr. Erol's book store.
 Mr. Paul Simpson is talking of going to Texas.
 Mr. D. L. Simpson is clerking in Anniston, on 10th street.
 Messrs. Clements & Aderhold will start a steam saw mill in a few days, on the South side of Cane Creek near Log's mill pond.
 Mr. Jas. A. Ferguson and wife are visiting relatives at Rock Run Station this week.
 Business all suspended, and child hunting is the order of the day during the snow.

A Household Treasure.
 D. W. Fisher, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house, and his family is always found that of his best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procured. G. A. Robinson, Druggist, Canajoharie, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy that he has used in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a bottle of it? It is sold by all druggists, and at the lowest price at all drug stores.

LULLMAN BROS.

Anniston, Alabama.

The San Francisco Call says it is willing to be wedded to the currency reform, but not with the gold ring.

This people continue to cry aloud for financial relief, and congress continues to do nothing. Pity but it would adjourn and let the do-nothing members go home and be kept there.

The manufacturers of New England continue to make arrangements to bring their cotton mills to the South. The advantages of the South for the manufacture of cotton is so decided over any other section, that there can be no question but the cotton goods of this country are to be manufactured in the South.

In the recent farmers convention held in Jackson, Miss., the farmers of the South are urged to decrease their cotton acreage at least 25 percent. The convention makes the following sensible suggestions:

The over production of cotton is recognized one of the chief evils. This must be corrected or universal bankruptcy will follow. Self-interest must impel the grower to change.

Every farmer is appealed to not to plant so much cotton, a decrease of not less than 25 per cent is recommended; 50 per cent would be better. The farmers should be made self sustaining by planting peas, corn, potatoes, oats, etc., and raising plenty of meat. The tide of immigration turned this way will change methods.

As the trustees have been appointed for the girls industrial school, it is now in order to put in bids for the location of this school.

Of all the places which have been suggested for location, to our mind, Anniston possesses more advantages than any other place suggested.

Anniston is one of the healthiest locations in the State, and girls can come there from any portion of the State without the least danger of having their health impaired from the poisonous effects of malaria; and the long continued fevers which are so common to other places, are almost unknown to the people of Anniston. In fact, a healthier location than Anniston cannot be found in any city in Alabama. This should be an important consideration in the selection of a location for this school.

Anniston's railroad facilities are such as to make her easily reached from all portions of the State.

Her magnificent churches attract the attention of all visitors, and she is noted for the moral and Christian influence of her citizenship.

She has already fully demonstrated that her people take an interest in educational institutions. As a result of this manifested interest, and of her splendid location, we learn the Southern Female University has been more prosperous there than it was at any of its other locations.

In fact, Anniston is not only the "Model City" of the South, but is the ideal place for the location of Alabama's industrial school for girls.

In the midst of the money famine, industrial stagnation, commercial paralysis, and the consequent universal mutterings of discontent throughout the land, it is consoling to know that there are a few faithful tribesmen of the people who are laboring to relieve their distresses, lighten their burdens, and restore wanted prosperity to the country. We have been handed a letter addressed by that able financier and patriotic citizen, Hon. J. H. Milner, of Birmingham, to Hon. J. H. Bankhead, member of congress from Alabama, suggesting the salient features of a currency system, as a substitute for the "Carlsbad plan" which has been virtually defeated by congress through a divided and dissensions democracy.

From a hasty and cursory reading of Col. Milner's letter, we are favorably impressed with his views. Our objection to his scheme as an entirety, is, that it involves a complete surrender of our financial system to the Federal Government, when we think that the repeal of the 10 per cent state bank tax, and the establishment of state banks of issue, with proper legal restrictions for security, but independent of federal influence or control, would, with free and unlimited coinage of silver, constitute a panacea for all the evils from which we are now suffering. To this we might add, a patriotic execution of the law, providing for the redemption of legal tender notes in coin; that is, in gold or silver at the option of the Government.

The persistent fight of the Montgomery Advertiser against Capt. Joseph F. Johnston will be answered by the Democracy of Alabama in the same manner as it met the unreasonable opposition of that paper against Senator Morgan. From expressions which came from press and people in all portions of the State during the last canvass for the State ticket, the Democratic people fully recognize the fact that the Democracy of Alabama owes Capt. Johnston a debt of gratitude for sacrifice he has made for the party in the expenditure of time, talent and money, and they are not disposed to further delay the payment of this obligation.

If the recent expression of the press and people can be relied upon, the Democracy of Alabama will promote Capt. Johnston to any position he asks for.

The Atlanta Constitution is well known as a cuckoo to Senator Morgan, yet this statement is found in the Washington special matter of issue yesterday:

"The friends of the Nicaragua Canal bill have abandoned hope of passing that at this session. They do not think the Morgan bill will even get through the Senate."

And yet The Advertiser is considered very extreme for not wanting to see fifty Morgans in the Senate, and for considering him an impractical back-number.—Montgomery Advertiser.

If the failure to pass a special bill introduced constitutes an "impractical back-number," then several of the distinguished gentlemen for whom the Advertiser is a cuckoo, should have long since been placed on the "impractical back-number" list. The Advertiser cannot fail to remember some very noticeable failures on the part of its pets to log roll certain measures through the United States congress.

GADSDEN, and the country around her, has great cause for congratulation.

The enterprise exhibited in bringing the Dwight Manufacturing Company to that city is worthy of much praise.

The mill will contain 25,000 spindles, and will consume from $600 to 10,000 bales of cotton per annum. This means that hundreds of people will be given work and that thousands and tens of thousands of dollars will go into their hands, and into circulation.

Under the plan, proposed, each family is to have a garden attached to the home, and night schools are to be conducted, for the education of the laboring children. In these schools the pupils can acquire a good elementary education.

No man can tell the great good that will come from such a scheme if properly conducted. To the Dwight people Alabama extends a cordial welcome. The southward movement that is now witnessed in the cotton milling industry is a logical one, and we believe that the day is fast approaching when a cotton mill will be in every valley, and a school house on every hill. These are but heritages of the South—birthrights long denied. Why should it not be so?

We see from the Hot Blast of Monday, that our neighbor thinks well of the County Fair suggested by our correspondent at Gadsden, and says that All Truth is in deed the man to take hold of the enterprise, and that Anniston is the place to hold the fair.

We are rejoiced to have the Hot Blast speak so favorably of the project, and we trust that our people all over the county will begin now and give the matter their attention.

The Hot Blast says that Anniston is the place for holding the fair. We are not now so much engaged in locating the fair, as in having our people take hold of it. We think Anniston is a good location, and we hope that Anniston will lead a great influence to its success.

Of all our population, the farmers need some chance to show what they can do. Our people little thought that Calhoun soils could be made to produce, as they have produced, under the magic of an intensive system, which has been so successfully fostered by Truitt in his distribution of prizes.

If Calhoun's cities, towns and villages, her farmers, mechanics, merchants and capitalists, push this enterprise to a successful end, it will be a benefit to every man, woman and child in our borders. It will be an advertisement to those beyond.

A. P. Agee, Esq., of Anniston, was here last Tuesday on legal business.

C. E. Bondurant and wife saw Downing in "The Gladiator," Monday evening.

Miss Mary Greer Caldwell, and Miss Emma Eason visited Anniston last week.

Frank P. Crawford has gone to Birmingham, where he has secured a good position.

Robert Downing, who played in Anniston Monday evening, drew quite a number of our young people.

Dr. T. W. Ayers and Jos. J. Arnold attended the entertainment of Miss Yaw in Anniston Friday evening last.

Col. Chas. P. Ball passed down the E. & W. R. R. on his car Saturday evening, and returned Sunday morning.

Miss Hannah Crook left Jacksonville again on Monday for Columbus, Ga., where she goes for a visit to relatives and friends.

D. T. Young of Weavers dropped in to see us Monday, and while here subscribed for the REPUBLICAN and Constitution.

Miss Goldie Ayers returned to Rome, Ga., on Monday last, where she goes to resume her studies at Shorter College.

Henry Lanford, of Alexandria, was up to see us on Wednesday. He dropped in, he said, to pay for the REPUBLICAN for the next year. Glad to see Henry.

Joe Francis of New York, went over to Birmingham Wednesday.
We regret to learn of the death of Mr. A. L. Dickert, who died at his home in Eulalia last Tuesday.
W. L. Burns, who has been confined to his room for several weeks, was on the streets Tuesday.
Rev. Mr. Milchamps will conduct services at the Episcopal Church on next Sunday, Jan'y. 20th.

Esquire E. M. Reid was in to see us Thursday. He has been quite sick recently, and we are glad to see him able to be out again.

Married, Jan'y. 13th, by Rev. W. S. Griffin, at the residence of the bride's father at Fergusonville, Mr. J. M. Loyd to Miss Cleo Ferguson.

Miss Ida Montgomery, who has been here for several weeks on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Gordon Frank, left Tuesday for Iron City, where she will visit friends.

Forney Williams, B. E. Frank, Ed. McCormick, Frank Martin, Chas. Wilkerson, Will Wilkerson, Chivis Woodruff and Chas. McGinnis drove down to Anniston Monday evening to see Downing.

Mrs. C. E. Bondurant, with Miss Lane, Miss Goldie Ayers, Miss Dollie Lane and Miss Ida Crook, heard Miss Yaw in her Grande Concerte, at Noble Street Opera House last week.

Commissioners Coker, DeArman, Palmer and Skelton have been here this week selected men to have the roads of the county worked this year, and looking after other interests of the county.

John Hamagami gave a most elegant dining last week complimentary to Mess. Caldwell, Rowland, Privett, Roberts and Clark for the splendid work they did in detecting the men who committed the recent burglaries here.

At a meeting of the Calhoun County Medical Society in Anniston last Tuesday, the following officers were elected: President, Dr. J. F. Davis; Vice-President, Dr. W. A. Smith; Treasurer, Dr. E. C. Anderson; Censor, Dr. T. W. Ayers.

The will of the late Hon. W. P. Cooper has been filed in the Probate Judge's office. It directs that the property be divided equally between his five children, W. H. Cooper is named as executor.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Palace Shoe Store, Anniston, Ala. This establishment carries as perfect a line of foot-wear as can be found in Alabama. They do a large business, and are therefore, enabled to make the liberal offers contained in this week's advertisement.

The stock law election in Beat 12 last Tuesday, resulted in a vote of 106 to 3 in favor of stock running at large. The stock law men declined to vote, and have filed contest questioning the jurisdiction of the court to order a second election. The contest will be heard on the 25th inst.

Capt Hunter, of Anniston, was up Thursday and submitted to the commissioners the map which he is making of Calhoun county. When finished it will be a complete map of the county, and will be exceedingly valuable to the commissioners in the discharge of their duties, as well as to all persons interested in a study of the county.

Col. S. L. Crook spent Sunday, and part of Monday with his friends in Jacksonville. The "Colonel" is now a member of Gov. Oates' staff. The Governor has been very happy in the selection of his staff, and the military retinue that will accompany him in his tours of inspection, during the two years to come, is a splendid one. We venture the assertion that there will be no figure that will lend a greater brilliancy to these occasions, than that of our gallant "Lt. Colonel." Aide-de-camp, to the Governor.

On Monday last, invitations to dinner were issued by Mr. Raymond Vansandt to a number of his friends, and on Wednesday, the following gentlemen met at his hospitable home: S. D. G. Brothers, Geo. Rowan, George P. Ide, A. L. Stewart, Geo. Crow, Jos. J. Arnold, T. R. Ward, A. M. Landers, William McGinnis and J. P. Crook.

An hour was very pleasantly spent in the reception room, when the guests were ushered into the dining room. The tables, which were beautifully and tastefully decorated by Mrs. Vansandt, assisted by Miss Mamie Ward, were loaded with the most tempting of viands, and those present showed their appreciation in a most practical manner.

Dinner over, another hour of conversation, with cigars, and the guests took their leave, with many expressions of the pleasure they had enjoyed.

GATHERED BY THE REPUBLICAN'S ABLE CORPS OF CORRESPONDENTS.

Anniston.
The proposed scheme of the Hot Blast to connect Anniston with St. Clair coal fields, has been pronounced feasible by men of experience in the use of electric power. It is further said that the creeks between here and there, would furnish sufficient power; that it would not be necessary to use Coosa river for that purpose. What we lack now is money. Ah! there's the rub. "Money makes the mare go," or, to express it more elegantly, the speed of the feminine horse is greatly accelerated by a plathoric pocket book or a substantial bank account.

Miss Yaw and Robert Downing have both been with us since my last letter. As a songstress, Miss Yaw has no equal before the public. As a delineator of tragedy, Mr. Downing stands unrivaled. We were pleased to have a number of Jacksonville people with us at the appearance of both of these noted people.

It is well suggested that all of our hand companies consolidate, for the purpose of bringing Anniston's many advantages to the notice of the many cotton mill owners North who contemplate moving their factories to the South. We receive enough cotton to run a large number of mills, and if our advantages were properly advertised, there is no doubt that we could secure at least two or three cotton factories within the next two years.

So far as we have heard, no candidate for mayor has announced, but the friends of several of our best citizens are discussing their qualifications in a quiet way, and the field may be full of aspirants within the next thirty days. Under existing financial depression, considering the great responsibility and the small salary attached, the office of mayor is not a very desirable position.

The city council is grinding out justice again after a short rest during the holidays.

Hon. R. B. Keily is at Montgomery looking after the interests of his constituency.

Hotel Calhoun is doing a rushing business. There is not a better hotel in the South.

The county medical society met here on Tuesday. Doctors from all over the county were present.

White Plains.
The continued cold, wet weather has interfered with farm work, and stopped the school-going children.

Despite the bad weather, our people remain in good health and are as happy and contented as any people in all the land.

Dr. Newman, our presiding elder, had a respectable congregation last Sunday, but as the weather was. He gave us a fine sermon and all felt well paid for the little exposure in going to and from church.

The quarterly conference on Saturday was attended by Messrs. Weems and Skelton of Jacksonville.

The Spring term of the Talladega District High School will open next Monday. We hope to see a full attendance. People should not let the cry of hard times hinder the education of the children.

Last Tuesday our village was alarmed again by the cry of fire. It was discovered that Mr. Watson's house was on fire. Happily, however, help was at hand and it was put out before much damage was done.

Mr. Howe, who left Calhoun about ten years ago, and went to North Carolina, has returned and will make this his future home.

Mr. Birmingham, one of Clay county's best citizens, has cast his lot with us. He has an interesting family and will be quite an addition to our town.

A new arrival at Prof. Smith's also. The first daughter, and he is happy.

Ayers & Crook are a strong team and we expect great things of the REPUBLICAN this year. Success to it.

Choccolocco.
The wheat has been injured some by the late frozes in this community. So has oats, but very few oats were sown.

There has been a nice chance of meat killed in this settlement. There are eight men right here who have killed and have got Jenkins.

Mr. J. M. Andrews of Piedmont, who was formerly of our neighborhood, was buried at Rabbit-Town cemetery last Saturday. He was an honored citizen and had many friends and relatives in the county.

Prof. E. N. Abbott has a flourishing school at Rabbit-Town, if the weather is bad. We learn of several schools being suspended on account of the cold, rain and snow.

I hope to be able to visit your paper oftener in the future.

Meriton.
W. D. Nixon, the week before Christmas, succeeded in recovering most of the property which was stolen from his store. The thief, John Moore, who lived at, or near Choccolocco, was also captured, and now awaits with Mr. Clark, until Circuit Court convenes.

J. M. and W. H. Dowdell came in from Texas on the 23rd. of December, on a visit to the old folks.

They returned on last Wednesday.

Cleora Gallahue has secured another engine to run his shingle machine.

Weavers.
The weather continues so bad but little work is being done on the farms.

If half the money that is generally promised in the spring for commercial fertilizers was spent now making compost, it would leave a good percent of the crop money here next fall.

Misses Peace and Williams after a few days pleasantly spent here, are visiting friends at Peaceburg. We hope these young ladies will favor us again with their cheerful faces.

What to plant and how to manage is the absorbing topic now with the farmers. Better not go in debt this year and better produce everything at home we use, and do without something we cannot raise. If we do this, we will be surprised how it will decrease the expense bill.

Peck's Hill.
Hog killing is the order of the day in this community. J. W. Williams killed 12 hogs from which he got three thousand pounds of meat. W. J. Akridge killed four hogs that made him one thousand pounds of meat. Henry Read, J. H. Gilchard and J. F. Shepherd killed recently meat enough to do them for the year. If all our people would raise their own meat we would soon have better times.

J. F. Sheppard has been on a business trip to Center this week.

Married, on the 13th inst., at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. Greg Martin to Miss Idella Wesson, Esquire Little officiating.

Glad to note that Thomas Gilchard is improving after a long illness.

Alexandria.
The death of Mr. W. P. Cooper at Oxford, on the 13th, is deeply regretted by his many friends here. A large concourse of people followed his remains to their last resting place, the cemetery at Mt. Zion church.

Mrs. H. J. Dean of Spartanburg, S. C., after a short visit to her parents, has returned to her home.

The date of the monthly services at the Baptist church has been changed from the first to the fourth Sunday. Rev. Geo. D. Harris begins his pastorate there on the fourth Sunday in January.

Mr. John Wakefield has been confined to his room the past week with a severe cold.

The patrons of the school will be glad to know that the new desks for the school room have arrived.

Owing to the week on the A. G. S. road one day last week, the trains of that road had to pass over the E. & N. H. R. in going to and from Birmingham.

Mr. W. H. Cooper has purchased the farm and residence of his deceased father.

Oxanna.
The municipal election here last Monday passed off quietly. The issue in the contest was over the sale of whisky. Out of 121 votes polled, the dry ticket headed by S. L. Newsome for Mayor received only 23 votes.

The following ticket was elected: For Mayor—E. H. Hanna. For Councilmen—W. T. Edmondson, H. S. Jewell, F. M. Lewis, H. C. Lynch, Harry Powell, Thos. Wilkerson.

Whitman Hanna headed the wet ticket, he is a prohibitionist.

Do you want a position? Have you anything to sell? Do you want to buy anything? If so, put a notice in the REPUBLICAN. One cent a word column.

Bondurant has such a complete line of can goods that he has come to the conclusion that men can live without cooks. This may, in our age, seem to be a bold statement, but then go and hear what he has to say about it.

A number of our people who went down to hear Miss Yaw, and to see Mr. Downing, stopped over night at the Hotel Calhoun. All of them speak very kindly of the cordial treatment extended by the popular proprietors of that hostelry.

Mr. Gasser is an old Jacksonville boy, and he never misses a chance to show every attention to his Jacksonville friends. We wish him all the "good luck" that Fortune can give.

There is good reason for the popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Davis & Buzzard, of West Montmore, Clarion Co., Pa., say: "It has cured people that our physicians could do nothing for. We persuaded them to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and they now recommend it with the rest of us." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by dealers.

Farmers who desire to borrow money will do well to see Mr. M. C. Wellborn, Anniston. He is an honest, lighted, gentleman; deals honestly and pleasantly. See his notice in our One-cent-a-word column.

Many stubborn and aggravating cases of rheumatism that were believed to be incurable and accepted as life legacies, have yielded to the surprise and gratification of the sufferers. One application will relieve the pain and suffering and its continued use insures an effectual cure. For sale by dealers.

Says the Birmingham Age-Herald: "Mr. J. T. DeArman, one of the Calhoun county commissioners, and Mr. W. D. Holcomb, both of Anniston, were in the city yesterday. They spent a portion of the day at Pratt mines inspecting the prisoners and looking after the convicts from Calhoun county. There are about thirty convicts in Pratt mines from Calhoun, including both State and county prisoners."

Carlton Corwell, foreman of the Grantee, Middlebar, N. J., believes that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy should be in every home. He used it for a cold and it effected a speedy cure. He says: "It is indeed a grand remedy; I can recommend it to all. I have also seen it used for whooping cough with the best results." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by dealers.

Two Lives Saved.
Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Mo., was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Rogers, 128 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadfull cough, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at all the Drug Stores. Regular size 50 and $1.00.

"Weapons," I made an excuse of looking for the key and so gained admission to the hall.

"Did you find anything likely to confirm your suspicions?"

"Yes. I found that an arrow had been removed from the wall."

"How can you tell that?"

"Because the weapon was arranged in patterns, and one of the patterns was incomplete. Moreover, on comparing that arrowhead with those on the wall I found it was perfectly similar in appearance."

"Tampl," said Merckley thoughtfully. "There is only one deduction to be taken from all this. Felix stole the arrow, and he is still in the castle."

"By stalling the clerk back into the office," I will see Mr. Brinfleur another time."

"Will you leave your name, sir?"

"No, it doesn't matter. I'll be about 9 on the chance of finding him."

Having thus baffled the inquiries of the caretaker, I strolled into the street and taking up my station at the door kept my eyes on the door. If Mr. Kerent was with Felix, she must have been out in a short time. I concluded to wait for her up and down the stairs.

As I was about to descend the stairs, I might possibly have been confronted by the weaker vessel.

ULLMAN BROS.

Anniston, Alabama.

VICE PRESIDENT STEVENSON has the sympathy of the entire country in his bereavement. His daughter died in North Carolina last week.

CALHOUN county on an average for the past five years has grown more cotton to the acre than any county in the cotton growing States.

The negroes in this section are contented and happy, and are not dreaming of any colonization scheme. They could not be induced to go to Africa.

To operate a large cotton mill in Jacksonville it would not be necessary to import foreign labor. No better labor could be secured than the sons and daughters of this county.

From the statement of cotton men who handle the bulk of the cotton raised in Alabama, we learn that Calhoun county's staple is equaled by only one county in the State.

When the East and West is extended to Birmingham and Atlanta, and from Jacksonville to Anniston, which the officials of the road say will be done as soon as practicable, Jacksonville's railroad facilities will be greatly improved.

The legislature now in session should not fail to pass the bill pending to exempt from taxation for ten or twenty years all the new cotton mills located in the state. To be exempt from state, county and municipal tax is an important consideration in the location of a mill.

With a soil which produces the largest average yield of any county in the South, a staple which is very superior, with such a nearness to the coal fields that coal can be delivered for a dollar a ton, with the healthiest climate in the South, Calhoun offers advantages for the manufacture of cotton which are unsurpassed.

If New York can do any thing that Atlanta can't duplicate, it is time for her to do it. The Lexow committee had hardly gotten to work, before Atlanta began to blow a little breeze of the same kind. Three of her detectives have already been suspended, and the police commission and city council are at logger heads as to which shall continue investigations.

The news comes across the Atlantic that Italy may, within the next few weeks, adopt a republican form of government. Crispi, the present prime minister, will be its president, King Humbert, not insensible to the brewing storm, and realizing that the days of his Kingdom are numbered, has deposited in the London banks the paltry sum of thirty millions of dollars, with the aid of which he hopes to be able to "eke out a miserable existence."

Mr. Gladstone who retired from political life a short time ago, writes to several of his old political associates, that he will again stand for election to his seat in the house of commons. Nobody knows just what object the "grand old man" has in view, but every one knows that he is not going to give up the quiet, happy life he has been leading for nothing. It is intimated that one cause of his return to politics is his desire to do away with the house of lords. England is ripe for such a measure, and if Gladstone lends his massive intellect to the movement, the closing years of the nineteenth century may witness the most wonderful change in English politics since the days of Magna Charta.

The energy that the directors of the Cotton States and International Exposition are throwing into the enterprise is remarkable. Not only are they advertising the scheme in South and Central America, but are pushing out into every continent.

We clip the following from an exchange: "The Cotton States and International Exposition is being advertised in every continent. The latest addition to the list of languages made use of is the Arabic. Mr. E. J. Arberry, editor of the KAWKAB AMERICA (Star of America) takes a lively interest in the last issue of his paper. This will circulate wherever the Arabic language is used, and will bring a number of oriental exhibits. Mr. Arberry is a native of Syria, and has a large acquaintance through the Orient."

For bleaching purposes, Jacksonville can furnish a supply of pure, clear water which cannot be surpassed.

Borron Brock, of the Cherokee Sentinel, thinks Bob Mosely is arrogating to himself a little too much authority when he declares in the Birmingham Times that hereafter there will be no fusion with Alabama Republicans. Mosely insists that the Republicans will not consent to again be the tail end to the kite in the state elections.

Quite a number of Calhoun's most enterprising citizens are those who came from the north and east, and who are Republicans. They rank among our best people socially. In business and social circles our people never enquire as to where a man was raised, as to his politics, or on which side he fought during the late war.

SOMETHING new is always happening in France. Perier, the president elected about six months ago, took a notion last week, at breakfast that he had enough (we mean of the presidency) and by four o'clock in the evening he had written his resignation and published it. France, you ought to have a Benny Harrison, he would hold to your presidency until he heard the proverbial owl hoot.

Let the General Assembly take up the election law bill and promptly make the amendments recommended by Governor Oates. Give each party having a candidate in the field the right to select an inspector, clerk and marker of the ballots. Our law must be so changed that hereafter there cannot be even a suspicion of fraud in the management of our elections, and we believe the recommendations of Governor Oates would have such an effect.

THE city of Brooklyn is now in the hands of a mob. The employees of the street car lines in that city came to the conclusion that they were poorly paid, and that they ought to strike. They not only struck, but they forbade other men from taking their places. The street car service is discontinued, and all Brooklyn is in a state of excitement. The mayor has not been able to quell the disturbance, and has been obliged to call on the state for troops.

The South is indeed fortunate that, thus far, in her history she has not been afflicted with strikes and riots of this nature.

If Senator Morgan could be successful in his heroic fight for the Nicaragua Canal, Mobile would become one of the largest ports of the world.

Coal is delivered now in Mobile by rail at less cost than to any other seaport. With the building of the locks on the Warrior River, the first of which locks has just been completed, comes the news that this water route will cut down the expense of delivery of coal fully one half.

If the canal should be opened, the increase in the coaling business would be of such vast importance as to at once fill every coal mine in Alabama with laborers, and furnish work to thousands, in transporting the product of the mines to the coast.

Very few citizens of Alabama know any thing about the number, size, and value of the cargoes, that are each year handled at the port of Mobile.

John E. Mitchell, president of the Chamber of commerce, of that city, in his recent annual address, gives some interesting data, from which we give the following: "From March 1889 through December 1894, 693 steamships and 357 ships, barks and brigs, drawing from sixteen to twenty three feet, have passed down our channel." Besides the above vessels Mr. Mitchell says that 500 schooners having a draft of from fifteen to seventeen feet have entered the port.

The trade in fruits, with South and Central America has grown wonderfully in the period named. Ten years ago this trade was almost of no value. In 1893, 1,019 cars left the port loaded with fruit, for interior points. In 1894, 2,013 cars went out.

More coconuts are brought to Mobile than to any other port in the United States. The port has handled, since March 1893, 2,213,677 bunches of bananas, 6,625,787 coconuts, 32,192 pine apples, and 17,285 bunches of plantains.

SATURDAY, JAN. 26, 1895.

Calhoun as an Agricultural and Stock Raising County.

Just now as the eyes of the people all over the country are turning once more to the south, in the investigation of her facilities for the manufacture of cotton goods, it might be well for the people of Calhoun county to tell those who are inquiring something of our advantages as an agricultural and stock raising section.

We would have our friends who have visited us, to know that no section in all this broad land of ours is better adapted to successful stock raising than Calhoun County. With an abundance of pure water, with a climate unequalled—a climate so gentle that there are very few days in winter that outdoor work cannot be done,—with a beautiful, but not excessive, rainfall, with a wonderfully diversified soil, suited to the growth of all kinds of vegetables and field crops, with pastures of native grasses, that are covered with a luxuriant growth from May to October, we believe that Calhoun county is today one of the most favored in the south.

CATTLE of all kinds do well with us. No section can raise choicer beef. With the cotton seed meal and hulls almost at every cattle raiser's door, which furnish an abundance of nutritious food in cheap form, with corn to ship away to hungry Nebraska, with an abundance of hay, and luxuriant meadows, we can raise and ship our beefs to packing houses at a handsome profit.

In the raising of hogs, Calhoun stands first. Our people began buying, a few years ago, the improved breeds, and now, in going through the country, the traveler sees the stately Berkshire, the enormous Duroc-Jersey and Poland-China, the plump Essex, basking in fat contentment at our farm house gates.

THE dairy offers probably the most remunerative field to the agriculturalist of the north-west, who is seeking a refuge from freezing winters and torrid summers. Here in Calhoun there are very few days, even in mid winter, that make it necessary to keep cattle in the barns, and they are only housed at night from November to April. There is no need of building the expensive barns, used in the north, and our cows can turn a greater portion of their ration into profits. With proper selection, and judicious handling and feeding, we are not extravagant when we say, that Calhoun county dairies can be made to produce 300 lbs of butter per cow.

No locality on earth is better suited to the raising of mules and horses than Calhoun County. We do not except Tennessee or Kentucky. True, Kentucky has her blue grass, and Tennessee her clover, but in the Bermuda pastures that are establishing themselves all over the County, and that last forever, the blue grass of Kentucky has met its successful rival. Clover grows as luxuriantly here as any where on earth, and the cow peas flourish on all our soils—furnishing as valuable a provender as clover.

Our grain crops consist of corn, wheat, oats, peas, rye, all of which are profitably grown. In this class might be included the cotton seed which for years has formed so valuable a part of the southern cattle food.

Pumpkins, squashes, and all garden vegetables, find in Calhoun, soils suited to their growth. Sweet potatoes, a valuable adjunct to the products of our farms obtain an almost marvelous growth with us. As much as three hundred bushels per acre, can be raised by proper fertilization and cultivation.

The grapes, the peach, the pear, the apple, all find in Calhoun, a fostering climate and a friendly soil.

Cotton manufacturing enterprises that are looking for a location in the south, can find no better field than Calhoun county. They may rest assured that while cotton is so thriving in the south, he has, in the other agricultural products of the country a band of subjects, that will help to maintain the manufactures which are to make him greater in the years to come.

ALABAMA cannot afford to fail to make an exhibit at the International and Cotton States Exposition. No State in the Union is richer in its natural resources, and no State would derive more benefit from an exhibit.

ALL ABOARD OVER THE SEABOARD AIR-LINE

From Jacksonville to Atlanta, Birmingham and Anniston. Col. Avery, of New York, Says These Extensions Will be Made at Once.

The Seaboard Air-Line and East & West railway will be united to form a through connection for the Southwest.

The East & West will be extended to Atlanta to connect with the Seaboard Line, and from Pell City to Birmingham, and will also build a line from Jacksonville to Anniston.

The extension of the East & West, and the building of the new road from here to Anniston will prove a great advantage to Jacksonville.

In speaking of these improvements the Birmingham Age-Herald had this to say last Saturday:

"Col. C. A. Avery of the East & West railroad arrived in the city last night at 10:20, and will spend to-day here looking after the interest of his line."

In conversation with an Age-Herald reporter last night at the Morris hotel he stated that he had come here at the solicitation of Dr. Caldwell, who was anxious to confer with him regarding matters pertaining to the terminals of the East & West. He will go back to New York Sunday morning, and then probably return in a week or such a matter, when he will begin personal supervision of the work that is to be done.

He said that the work of putting the Highland Avenue and Belt dummy line in a condition to properly accommodate the traveling public would be pushed along as rapidly as possible, and the track, he said, would be fixed up and the rolling stock repaired and repainted. As to the purchase of new rolling stock he stated that this would not be done for as soon as possible the line will be equipped with electricity.

In reference to the extension of the East & West from Pell City to Birmingham he stated that men would be put in the field not later than February 1, and that the work of construction would begin very soon thereafter.

As soon as the engineer corps finish their work, or even parts of it, the work of construction will begin and will be pushed for all it is worth, thus completing the extension of the line into Birmingham at the earliest possible date.

He talked as if this would have been done much had it not been for the death of Mr. Kelly, which as a matter of fact retarded everything. As to the building of a line from Anniston to Jacksonville, he said that would be done, and that the work upon it would begin contemporaneously with the work on the extension of the line from Pell City here.

Colonel Avery seemed pleased with the interest the public is taking in the matter, and went so far as to say that in the building of this line nothing would be left half done, but the public would be given the very best of everything.

He seemed anxious for the work to begin, but said there were a lot of things that had to be attended to before anything in the nature of construction could be done. This immense amount of work has retarded it to a certain extent.

Nevertheless the East & West will be built into Birmingham, and it will not be long either.

President Hoffman and Vice-President Adams, of the Seaboard, were in Atlanta last Saturday, and the Constitution has this to say in reference to their visit:

"Atlanta is to have a new connection with the southeast in the shape of a direct through line of railroads. The Seaboard Air-Line has at last secured the desired western connection that it has so long been working for, and Atlanta is to be the central point."

It is now no longer a matter of speculation, but a matter of fact, that the Seaboard Air-Line and the East & West railway will be united to form a through connection for the southwest.

The legislature reconvened last Tuesday, but up to the hour of going to press no business of special importance has been transacted.

Mr. CAMP of Tallapoosa, has introduced bill in the Legislature to create the Thirteenth Judicial circuit, to be composed of the counties of Tallapoosa, Shelby and Clay. Also, a bill to abolish the Tallapoosa city court.

Mr. Kelly of Calhoun, has introduced bill to confer chancery jurisdiction on the circuit court of the Seventh Judicial circuit.

It seems very probable that some change will be made in the courts of this circuit.

The one thing which the people demand is that the expense of our courts be reduced, and our representatives will do well to bear this in mind.

JACKSONVILLE

AS A LOCATION FOR COTTON MILLS.

Her Advantages Unequaled by any place in Alabama.

She has an Abundance of Pure, Clear Water which Can be Used for Bleaching Purposes.

She Offers Necessary Land for Site and Buildings Free of Charge.

Her City Council Will Exempt New Industries From Taxation.

While the fiddling Neros who wear the misnomers of congressmen and senators of the United States behold with salaried complacency the distresses of the people, and stand before the country as confessed failures and incompetents, it is meet and proper for the people of the south, with filled barns, meat houses and corn cribs, and their inexhaustible resources of all that is necessary to make a country great, and a people prosperous and happy, to turn in disgust from the promised legislative relief that has been only fruitful of the "long deferred hope that maketh the heart sick," and address themselves to building up their God given Eden, which offers such dazzling inducements to the skillful mechanic, the aggressive capitalist, and the progressive farmer.

living by honest toil, and who abhor strikes; the south has been especially designed, by nature for the manufacture of cotton into every character of textiles, fine and coarse, from a calico print to the heaviest duck. With prophetic sagacity, the shrewd cotton mill men of the East have foreseen the coming collapse which must inevitably result from the grossly unequal competition between the East and the South in the manufacture of cotton goods, and like the wise man who seeth the gathering storm and hideth himself, they are coming to this favored section with their skill and capital to push forward this enterprise so successfully inaugurated by our own people. With open arms and fraternal greeting we most cordially invite them to come on, and assure them that no effort shall be spared, on our part, to make their location among us, mutually pleasant and profitable.

It is a conceded fact that in the last four years the South has added one million spindles to her cotton industries, and that able journal, the Baltimore News, estimates that during the next twelve months, at least twelve millions of dollars will be invested in cotton mills in the south. At this rate the people will soon become their own factors, and the bulls and bears be out of a job. Cost of transportation and the expense of brokerage will be things of the past, when the farmer can deliver the raw material directly from the field to the manufacturer.

Without making an invidious distinction against any portion of the south (for every cotton growing section ought to have its mill; we trust we may be pardoned for expressing what we honestly and conscientiously believe, when we say that Jacksonville, Alabama, is pre-eminently one of the most inviting and attractive sites for a large cotton mill, to be found any where in the south.

In this we are sustained by the facts.

Built at the base of Choctawhatchee mountain, a spur of the Blue Ridge, and overlooking a ravishing landscape, varied by alternating hills and valleys, farms and forests, Jacksonville is unequalled, if equaled, in all the Piedmont region, as a lovely and attractive home.

From the summit of Choctawhatchee mountain 1500 feet above the level of the sea, bold springs of cold free stone water gush forth, which by the enterprise of our citizens have been made to supply the town with water, both for drinking purposes and protection against fire. But besides this facility for water, nearly in the heart of the corporation, a very large spring of crystal limestone, furnishing one million six hundred sixty thousand gallons per day, leaps from a picturesque mound, and following the course of natural drainage, mingles near by with the waters of other springs and rolls away in its course to swell the

With all the natural attractions of a healthy salubrious climate, which will enable manufacturers to run their plants night and day throughout the entire year, an inexhaustible supply of pure, life-giving water, broad fields of fertile crops at the very door of consumption, fuel low in price, abundant in quantity and superior in quality, labor cheap, intelligent, reliable, capable of wonderful efficiency under very little training, and gathered from among a people who have been educated to honest trade of the neighboring Tallahassee.

The natural drainage of Jacksonville is perfect, no poisonous malaria lurks within her borders, and exempt from extremes of heat and cold, she is truly nature's sanitarium.

She has a population not exceeding fifteen hundred souls, and yet, accessible by easy lands and good roads, from every part of the county, she would be safe in guaranteeing 10,000 bales per annum of cotton to a mill located in her midst. She has a generous and enterprising land company which stands ready to contribute land and water, with tempting liberality, and to render other necessary aid.

We have two railroads, part of rival and competing systems, to-wit, the Alabama division of the Southern Railway, and the East and West, which is now the property of the Seaboard Air-Line, and at an early day, will form a connecting link between the Seaboard Air-Line and the Birmingham, Memphis, and Kansas City R. R. These two railroads will not only furnish egress for transportation, under favorable freight rates, of the products of the mill, east, west, north and south, but will afford matchless facilities for obtaining coal, coke, timber, brick, lime, sandstone, and other material, for construction and operation.

Coal, in great quantity and fine quality, can be had, the "way the crowd flies," within twenty three miles of the town, and can be laid down at a cost of one dollar per ton. Sandstone pronounced to be as fine as was ever quarried, can be had in abundance for the mere asking, within the limits of the corporation. Brick of superior quality, made here, can be furnished for four dollars per thousand. Sand can be delivered at fifty cents per yard. Lumber, cut from our forests of long leaf yellow pine can be delivered at six dollars per thousand feet. The town council has agreed to exempt from taxation for ten years any cotton mill built here, and an act is now pending before the legislature of Alabama, providing for an exemption of cotton mills, from taxation for ten years. This section, notably this county, is famous for the superior staple of its cotton, and produces more per acre than any county, except one, in Alabama.

Now to recapitulate; a small city, a hospitable, cultivated and refined citizenship, an equable climate, a healthy, beautiful and well watered location, sites and land with abundance of pure water, superior sandstone obtainable at the cost of getting it out, brick, lime, coal, sand, lumber to be had as cheap as they can be obtained in the world, the most desirable transportation facilities, and a people with extended hands and welcoming hearts, inviting capitalists to come and abide with them, does it not look as if nature had piled up all the material and supplied all the conditions to make Jacksonville conspicuously the place for a large cotton manufacturing enterprise. There is one more thing useful to meet every requirement and we challenge the world to excel us in the character of our labor. From a population that replaced the red man, and that has suffered more from the communistic, socialistic and anarchistic element that has migrated from foreign countries, and settled in the Northwest and East, to foment dissension, inaugurate strikes, and paralyze industries, a class of labor can be obtained that is painstaking, industrious, intelligent, patient, efficient with little experience, and who for a hundred years have lived up to, and illustrated the maxim "to live and to let live."

If Jacksonville does not become the sight of a large cotton mill, it will be only because her superior advantages will not be brought to the attention of investors in this line of industry. Persons desiring further information about Jacksonville can write: S. D. G. Brothers, President Jacksonville Mining and Manufacturing Company, Gen. P. J. de, Cashier Tredegar National Bank, Gen. J. W. Burke, Receiver Chattanooga Southern Railroad, Jacksonville, Ala.

ALABAMA was not represented by an exhibit at Chicago, but she must be on hand at the Cotton States and International Exposition in Atlanta.

If we miss this opportunity to show our matchless advantages to the thousands of home and investment seekers who will come to Atlanta this year, the injury done to ourselves will be irreparable.

A Quarter Century Test.

For a quarter of a century Dr. King's New Discovery has been tested, and the millions who have received benefit from its use testify to its wonderful curative powers in all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. A remedy that has stood the test so long and that has given so universal satisfaction is no experiment. Every bottle is positively guaranteed to give relief, or the money will be refunded. It is admitted to be the most reliable for Coughs and Colds. Trial bottles free at the drug stores. Large size and full directions free.

3,797 POUNDS

COTTON PRODUCED ON ONE ACRE CALHOUN SOIL.

96 BUSHELS OF CORN TO THE ACRE.

Alf Truitt, the Anniston Hustler, Doing Much for the Agricultural Interests.

No men in Georgia are doing more for the agricultural interests of the Empire State of the South than the Truitts.

Anniston's hustler, Alf Truitt, while not engaged directly in the pursuit of agriculture, is keeping pace with his Georgia brothers in elevating and dignifying the calling of the farmer.

But if Alf should not devote time and thought to the subject of intensified farming, he would no longer be a Truitt.

He has his peculiar ways of doing things, and one of the plans adopted to improve the farming lands of Calhoun county, and thus better the condition of the farmers, is his offer of premiums.

His premiums for the last year were awarded as follows:

Best acre cotton, $30.—to W. G. Moody, who made 3797 lbs.

Next best acre cotton, $15.—to D. M. Sawyer, who made 3074 lbs.

Best acre corn, $20.—to T. N. Nichols, who made 96 bushels.

First bushel new meal, $5.—to Mrs. S. Lanford.

Largest watermelon, $2.50.—to S. S. Borders.

Best gallon syrup, $2.—to T. J. Ford.

Largest pumpkin, $2.—to P. B. Watson.

First cotton blossom, $1.—to Dorse Elston, col.

First open cotton boll, $1.—to Virge Watson.

Largest potatoe, $1.—to S. G. Armentrout.

We are glad to be able to publish the results in Mr. Truitt's prize contest. Numbers of our farmers competed and there were many who followed close behind the winners. We regret that we have not the data to give more of the work done by these contestants. What we do publish, however, is an illustrated argument to our people, that intensive farming pays.

In the feeding of plants,—just as in the feeding of animals,—these fundamental principles should be held in mind:

(1) It takes a certain amount of food to barely sustain life, (2) it requires a greater amount of food to sustain a healthy, strong body in animals, or a strong stock in plants, (3) it requires a still greater supply of food to enable this plant or animal to return to the feeder a profit. Where we feed just enough to sustain life, we feed at a loss; where we feed only enough to grow a strong stock or body, we neither lose nor gain; at this point profitable feeding begins, and just so much as we feed above this requirement, just so great will be our profits. To illustrate: It will take so much to keep a cow, or a hog, a stalk of corn or a cotton plant alive. It will take more food to keep this cow or this hog in good growing order, or to give to this stalk of corn and this cotton plant a strong healthy growth. This is giving them the food of support. Now all that we feed above this amount, which the plant or animal can digest, goes into the profit column. It places on the cotton plant the bolls, upon the stalk of corn the ear, upon the hog the pork, upon the cow the beef, or it enables her to give the milk, and produce the golden butter.

Truitt caught this idea and his prizes have taught a good lesson to numbers of our people this year. It takes very little more labor to cultivate one acre that produces two bales of cotton, than it does to cultivate an acre that gives one half a bale. Very little more labor is required to make the acre yield the 96 bushels of corn than to make an acre yield twenty or twenty-five bushels of corn. It takes more brain work, and a little more manual labor, but the result is a tenfold payment for all this.

People from several portions of the county are talking and writing up the advantages of a county fair. Well, that's a move in the right direction. No county, state or nation ever lost anything by a fair. It may be that fair does not always pan out in dollars and cents, a sufficient sum to cover all expenses. Never the less, other benefits and advantages accruing to the county, state and nation over balance largely the deficiency in dollars and cents. Hence all fairs should be encouraged.

Several places have been mentioned as suitable locations for holding a Calhoun county fair in the fall of 1895. "Those places may be all suitable, yet there is one not yet presented to the public which possesses more advantages, according to my way of thinking, than any yet named. I mean Oxford Lake. There are buildings, stalls, a race track, ample grounds, all ready; and they can be had for the asking. It would require a considerable outlay of money to arrange any other place in the county with the conveniences that are all ready constructed and ready for use at Oxford Lake.

Then there is no place so accessible in the county. Two railroads pass through Oxford and Oxonia, and three through Anniston, and the Lake Line Electric cars run through all three of these cities. Persons can come to any of them and be carried by the electric cars to the grounds with ease and facility.

All this combined with the many attractions the Lake Line company has at great expense and labor secured, added to the magnificent scenery with which the good Lord has adorned Oxford Lake, makes a suitable, convenient, pleasant and beautiful place to hold a county fair is not to be found inside the county, or out of it.

That's all I have to say on the subject, and I feel satisfied if there is to be a county fair, and there surely ought to be, that Oxford Lake will be chosen as the place to hold it.

The secret of the whole matter is in studying the nature of the plant grown. See what soil suits it best, see what kind of cultivation it favors, see what food it needs, and the best mode of applying that, with the idea in mind that too little food will starve and too much will gorge, administer with judgment.

Mr. Truitt will offer other prizes for 1895, and we trust that more of our people will enter the contest.

A COUNTY FAIR. Sam Slim Says it Should Be Held, And That Oxford Lake is The Place.

DEAR SIRS—I bought a bottle of your P. P. P. at Hot Springs, Ark., and it has done me more good than three months' treatment at the Hot Springs.

Have you no agents in this part of the country, or let me know how much it will cost to get three or six bottles from your city by express.

Respectfully yours, JAS. M. NEWTON.

NEWMANVILLE, FLA., MESSRS. LITTMAN BROS., SAVANNAH, GA.

DEAR SIRS—I wish to give my testimonials in regard to your valuable medicine, P. P. P., for the cure of rheumatism, neuralgia, dyspepsia, biliousness, etc. In 1861 I was attacked with bilious muscular rheumatism, and have been a martyr to it ever since. I tried all medicine I ever heard of, and all the doctors in reach, but I found only temporary relief; the pains were so bad at times that I did not care whether I lived or died. My digestion became so impaired that everything I ate disagreed with me. My wife also suffered so intensely with dyspepsia that her life was a burden to her; she would be confined to her bed for weeks at a time; she also suffered greatly from giddiness and loss of sleep. Some time in March I was advised to take P. P. P., and before we (my wife and I) had finished the second bottle of P. P. P., our digestion began to improve. My pains subsided so much that I have been able to work, and am feeling like doing what I haven't done before in a number of years. We will continue taking P. P. P. until we are entirely cured and will cheerfully recommend it to all suffering humanity. Yours very respectfully, J. S. DUFFISS.

Scrofula Cured—Blood Purified by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"G. L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass."

"I wish to place on record my testimony concerning what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for my daughter. It is a wonderful medicine and I cannot recommend it too highly. Sarah, who is fourteen years old, has been afflicted with Scrofula ever since she was one year old. For five years she has had a running sore on one side of her face. We tried every remedy recommended, but nothing did her any good until we commenced using Hood's Sarsaparilla. My married daughter advised me to use Hood's Sarsaparilla because she had cured her of dyspepsia. She had been taking the medicine since childhood, and since her cure she has never been without it. We commenced giving it to Sarah about one year ago, and it has conquered the running sore, as a trace of the scrofula disease. Previous to taking the medicine her great face was covered with sores. Now she can see perfectly. In connection with Hood's Sarsaparilla we have used Hood's Vegetable Pills, and then the cure was complete. Mrs. M. A. Griffin, Xenia, Illinois.

INCUBATORS.—Two incubators, one 100 eggs, the other 200 egg capacity. Both in good condition. Apply to Avers & Crook.

ORGANS.—A handsome Watters Organ, costing originally $250. Will sell for $50. This is a big bargain. Avers & Crook.

SCHROEDER'S SULKER SPRINGS.—As a summer resort, this can be made one of the best places of property in the State. The sulphur water on the property is unequalled in the State, and unsurpassed in the United States. Here are twelve cottages at the Springs, and it is already a popular resort, and with the necessary improvements, can be made the most popular spring in this section. This property contains 110 acres. Will sell the entire property, or a three-fifths interest in it. For particulars write Avers & Crook.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Col. John H. Caldwell was a visitor to Anniston this week.

Mrs. Clara Walker came over from Gadsden last Saturday.

The "Goulds" are rehearsing again, and hope to appear on the boards by Feb'y first.

Miss Madge Wilkerson entertained a party of her friends at her home on Monday evening.

Miss Addie Alexander returned to Jacksonville, Sunday. She has been visiting friends in Rome, Ga.

Miss Sadie Williams returned to Jacksonville on Saturday last, after a visit to friends in several southern cities.

Prof. Glass of Alexandria has had the new desks placed in the building, and the school opened, after the holidays, with seventy-five pupils.

Capt. J. B. Kimball, adjutant for the Georgia Home Insurance Co., spent Friday and Saturday in Jacksonville. His company is a popular one in our town.

Mrs. Vary and her son Elbert, are visiting the family of Judge Crook. Mrs. Vary will remain in Jacksonville a week, when she will leave for a stay of several months in Florida. Miss Ida Crook will probably accompany her.

The valuable lime quarry and sand banks situated about two miles north of Jacksonville, have been purchased by a party of Annistonians headed by Mr. Cobb of that city. This is a very valuable property. The lime is of a very superior quality, and the building sand can not be excelled. The entire farm will be the sand and quarry.

J. T. Doster of Rome, was on our streets this week.

Miss Annie Crook returned Thursday from the Judson.

Col. C. P. Ball was in Jacksonville a short while, on Wednesday, 23rd.

D. D. McLeod of Anniston, was in Jacksonville a short while, on Wednesday.

Mr. W. B. Sadler of Cartersville, was here a few days since on a visit to Dr. Ayers.

Dr. and Mrs. Douthett were here a few days since on a visit to the family of Dr. Linder.

Quintan Read has moved his family to Jacksonville, and occupies the Land residence.

John Forney, Esq., of Birmingham, was here last Saturday with his host of friends.

Miss Morris, the music teacher in the White Plains school, spent part of last week with her father here.

Mr. Daniel P. Gunnels, one of Calhoun's best citizens, died suddenly at his home in Oxford this week.

William Ferguson, of Sacramento, Cal., and Mrs. Dr. Scurry, Piedmont, are here visiting Mrs. Crow.

Owing to the press of other matter, we are forced to leave out several contributions this week. They will appear next week.

The reception extended to the Guitars, Mandolin and Banjo Club, by the Misses Alexander last week, was a very pleasant affair.

C. R. Stewart killed five wild turkeys Monday morning at one shot. This makes him the champion turkey hunter of this section.

Young Stovall, who is in jail here charged with the murder of Martin, has decided that it is best for him not to eat, and has eaten nothing for the past ten days.

Mr. J. A. Gaboury has sold his interest in the Macon garage contract, and he and family will return to Jacksonville at an early date. We are glad to have this excellent family return.

The minutes of the Calhoun County Baptist Association are now ready. Where churches can conveniently do so, they will please send to the Republican office during the next week and get them.

Services at the Baptist Church Sunday. Sunday School half past nine o'clock. Preaching at 11 o'clock by Dr. M. H. Lane, subject "The Temptation of Peter." You are earnestly invited to attend these services.

Dr. Lane will deliver his lecture, "A Knight's Armor," in the opera house in Anniston next Tuesday night. This is indeed a fine lecture, and the people of Anniston will be pleased with it. As a lecturer, Dr. Lane has few equals.

Geo. D. Ide, and his friend, Mr. Rutter of St. Johnsbury, Vt., who has been visiting him in his Jacksonville home, left on Tuesday for Memphis, New Orleans, and other Southern cities.

Mr. Rutter is a most estimable gentleman, and his acquaintance in Jacksonville will be glad to learn that he will stop over in our town on his way back to Vermont.

There is good reason for the popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Davis & Bazzard, of West Monterey, Clarion Co., Pa., say: "It has cured people that our physicians could do nothing for. We persuaded them to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and they now recommend it with the rest of us." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by dealers.

Contractor Geo. W. Bowling carried about a dozen carpenters up to Jacksonville (this afternoon) to finish the erection of building for the Jacksonville oil mill. Among them were George Bell, J. H. Nunnally and R. R. Nesbit.—Hot blast.

Many stubborn and aggravating cases of rheumatism that were believed to be incurable and accepted as life legacies, have yielded to Chamberlain's Pain Balm, much to the surprise and gratification of the sufferers. One application will relieve the pain and suffering and its continued use insures an effectual cure. For sale by dealers.

To those who subscribed for the Republican and Constitution together, and who have not received the Constitution, we wish to say that the cause of the delay has been on account of the Constitution not reaching the subscription blanks to this office. We want every one to be represented in the Prize Contest and were waiting for the proper forms on which to send in the guesses. Subscriptions have all been sent in now, however, and the papers will be received from this time.

Mr. W. R. Helm, of Blue Nose, visited his friend, Homer Reid of Morrisville last Sunday.

Rev. F. M. Jones preached at Cameron Springs Academy last Sunday.

Our Sunday Schools do not seem to be flourishing; they must have gone into winter quarters.

The REPUBLICAN is the oldest newspaper in the county, and has always been a power in the county for good. Since it changed hands it has been improved, and now that there has been added to its editorial staff a lawyer and farmer, we are expecting much from the "Old Reliable."

Friday and Saturday last were busy days in Judge Crook's Court. Judge, George, Henry, Newt, Tom, and Bab, of the House of Champions, Will Gidley, Ollie Williams and Bill Wilson were given a hearing in the burglary cases against them. All the defendants were acquitted except Jake and Walter Champion and Will Gidley. Jake was placed under a $500 bond in some cases. Will Gidley and Walter Champion were given a $200 bond in one case each. Gidley made bond and is now at liberty.

E. J. Patterson, who was accused of horse-stealing, near Duke's, was bound over to await the action of the grand jury.

The negro Isom Moore, who robbed Nixson's store at Merrellton was placed under $500 bond.

In the case against W. C. Black and Rich Kirby, a noll. pro. was entered. This was a case of trespass on the lands of the Jacksonville Mining & Mfg. Co.

The enterprising young Browns of Ragland, spent last Sunday at their father's near Olathe.

Mrs. J. W. Pearce and son Henry braved the mud and drove to our town one day last week from Tampa to visit her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Tarvin.

Mr. Joe Tarvin of Sugar Valley, Ga., is on a visit to his brother, Mr. A. J. Tarvin, of this place.

Fergusonville.

Mess. Shapson, Emerson, and Howard are engaged in burning lime to be used in compost heaps as a fertilizer.

Messrs. Clements and Aderhold are hard at work getting their saw mill in position. They will soon "blow whistle."

Ross & Co., continue to run their mill on full time, making lumber at a lively rate.

Mr. J. A. Sides who bought land in North Peachburg, is making considerable improvements. He is patenting the saw mill liberally, and is building new cribs, fences, etc.

Messrs. Simmons and Sons are making a new fence around their farm.

Prof. Persons' school is well attended, the pupils making admirable advancement, and the patrons are well pleased.

Our genial Zim Acker, the mercantile solicitor, comes here occasionally, and with a broad smile on his face, seems to be whistling "It be all smiles tonight love."

Mr. Tom Lee, of Anniston, was out last Sunday to meet his old friends in this vicinity.

Merrellton.

Rev. T. S. Nabors, from South Alabama was visiting relatives in this section last week.

Joe Reaves, son of J. M. Reaves is very sick, and is not expected to live.

We are in favor of a county fair, to be held in Calhoun county this fall, though we hardly think this will induce congress to do any thing for our farmers.

Weavers.

Water and mud have been plentiful for the last week.

The farmers of this section are busy fixing for another crop.

Mr. T. G. Ledbetter of Piedmont, is visiting his father at this place.

Mr. B. W. Armstrong of Tallahassee, Ala., was up Sunday to see Miss Annie Pence.

Miss Josie Williams returned to her home at White Plains, after a short visit to her friends at Weavers and Peachburg. We hope Miss Williams enjoyed her visit.

Miss Clemmie Weaver of the Southern Female University, was up Saturday, visiting her father and mother.

A few of the young people went over to Prof. Alexander's on Monday evening and enjoyed the nice music by the Weavers Station band.

The patrons of the school gathered last Monday, and worked the walk that leads to the school house.

Prof. Alexander has a fine school. Success to him.

Some of our young men are getting very uneasy about their girls. They have not heard from them for some time. Now, girls, do write them a letter. Don't hold them in anxious expectancy any longer. It's too hard on the boys.

It May Do as Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back, and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so-called kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began the use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure all kidney and liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c for large bottle. At all the drug stores.
